There were of great service at the Magistracy, as it will, also several points in the Governor's eulogy of his trusty Vizier that require elucidation; and we shall take an early opportunity of supplementing the statement there made. Many residents will be perfectly ready, as we have previously shown, to endorse the eulogium passed by Lord Stanley upon the Acting Chinese Secretary, with the reservations which have been repeatedly pointed out Per Riga, at 11.30 a.m., on Saturday, as to his present anomalous position in the 4th inst., instead of as previously the Service. public works in next year's financial programme. If we could believe that the policy of the Government in this matter is guided by the Hon. Mr Price, the suggestion might be valuable and important; but nothing could be further from the actual fact. In passing, it may be noted that the publicity of the Finance Committee's deliberations, so hopefully promised by His Excellency, has been disapproved by the Secretary of State. As matters at present stand, it is not apparent that any great advantage would be gained, -so long as the Colony is being governed so directly from Downing Street. It is, however, sa isfactory to note that the Estimates have been got under way at an earlier date than has been the custom for several years back. The only other point deserving of note in a running sketch like the present is the great discretion shown by the Hon. M. S. Tonnochy in the short discussion which took place on the Prisons Regulation Amendment Ordinance. His Excellency very neatly introduced the Hon. Superintendent of the Gaol to the Council with the words that he had no doubt Mr Tonnochy could explain very clearly his views on the Bill: The challenge, however, was not accepted, and, as the Hon. gentleman's report (upon which he discreetly fell back) has not yet been published, the public are as yet unenlightened as to the grounds upon which the views of the Gaol Superintendent have been so thoroughly and entirely changed on the subject of maintaining discipline in the Gaol. Mr Tonnochy, however, pleaded that he might retain the power to punish by ordering a prisoner upon bread and water, otherwise it would be impossible to get any work done. The Bill was amended so as to secure this scrap of authority to the unfortunate Gaol Superintendent; and after a short skirmish relating to the transference of power from the Gaol Superintendent and Visiting Justices to the _olice Magistrate, to punish prison-

DISASTER, Simla, July 28.—General Burrows' bri gade was detached from the Candabas garrison to co-operate with Shere Ali appointed by the British Wuti of Candahar against Ayoob Khan the aspirant to the Ameership. When Shere All ordered bis forces to retreat towards Garishk, his infantry deserted in a body, but were pursued by General Burrows, who recovered the guns and wagons which they had carried off. Weakened by the desertion of Shere Ali's infantry General Burrows effected a retrograde movement to Kushk Natked, thirteen miles nearer Candahar. Ayoob Khan's forces had reached the Helmund river, above Gariebk, and the spies reported that he had crossed that river at Hyderabad, and that 600 Ghazis had joined him, while parties of cavalry were foraging near the British camp. would seem as if the Indian Government had felt some misglying as to General Burrows' position, for a fortnight ago the reserve division in the Zinde was placed under orders for active service. THE CHINA REVIEW.

THE widely-expressed regret at the discontinuance of Notes & Queries on China and Japan, has induced the hublishers of this journal to issue a publication similar in object and style, but slightly modified in certain details.

THE CHINA REVIEW, or Notes and Queries on the Far East, is issued at intervals of two months, each number containing about 60 octavo pages, occasionally illustrated with lithographs, photographs, woodcuts, &c., should the papers published demand, and the circulation justify, such extra matter.

The subscription is fixed at $6.50 postage paid, per annum, payable by non-residents Government House, North of Public in Hongkong half-yearly in advance.
